

Mexico college opens at SkySong

Tecnologico de Monterrey has opened a Phoenix liaison office at SkySong, the ASU Scottsdale Innovation Center.

The office will develop international initiatives and programs, support cooperation between researchers and entrepreneurs in Mexico and abroad, and increase visibility of the Mexican university's programs. ASU is donating office space for a year to start up the office.

Monica Camacho is director of the Phoenix office.

